Former President in Notable Address Before Nobel Prize Commission Threads Mazes of European Politics Carefully and Makes Profound Impression—King and Queen of Norway Heap Honors on Visitors.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CHRISTIANIA, May 5.—Notwithstanding an occasional weakness of the voice, Theodore Roosevelt made a deep impression on the audience which gathered today in the National Theater to hear his address on international peace, before the Nobel Prize Commission.

It was described by the members of the committee as the most notable address since the Nobel prize was founded.

King Haakon and Queen Maud were present, as were all members of the government, who occupied seats on the stage, and the entire parliamentary body, including Miss Rugetan, the first woman to be elected to the Norwegian Storting.

The overture at the opening of the session was especially composed by the royal bandmaster, Johann Halvorsen, who dedicated it to Mr. Roosevelt.

The theme embodied the Star Spangled Banner, Norse folk songs and melodies.

The stage was bordered with flowers and only the Stars and Stripes were visible.

TRIBUTE TO BJORNSTON.

The audience stood up when the King and Queen and Mrs. Roosevelt took seats in the royal box. They arose again when Mr. Roosevelt entered from the back of the stage, escorted by J. D. Lovland, former Premier, and chairman of the Nobel Prize Commission.

Mr. Lovland introduced Mr. Roosevelt, who read his speech. From time to time, however, he departed from the text, to repeat in the same words or in somewhat different words, the ideas he had just expressed.

Before taking up the subject of his official address, Mr. Roosevelt spoke of the late Bjornstjerne Bjornson, whom he wished to pronounce a tribute.

He said: "To the great Norwegian who has just died—The whole house arose and stood with bowed heads for a moment and Mr. Roosevelt continued, 'whose death leaves a gap in the literature of the whole world.'"

He alluded to Bjornson as a man who always had stood for the right as he conceived it to be.

ABUNDANT APPLAUSE.

As Mr. Roosevelt proceeded with his address, the Norwegians commented upon the similarity between the style of public speaking of former President Roosevelt and Bjornson, remarking on the same favorite gesture with the clinched hand.

The address was broken by abundant applause, in which the King joined. At its conclusion the Queen stood and joined the audience in giving nine cheers for Roosevelt.

The colonel proposed three cheers for Norway, and led the cheering, but the house broke away and gave nine, following the Norwegian custom.

The audience then sang the Norwegian anthem and dispersed.

On leaving the theater the King, with Col. Roosevelt at his right, rode in one carriage to the palace, while the Queen and Mrs. Roosevelt occupied another.

This was a holiday in Christiania, and the people gathered on either side of the broad main street, and in such numbers that Mr. Roosevelt remarked he had not seen such immense crowds anywhere else in Europe on this trip.

SITS FOR STATUE.

The former President today gave Sculptor Vigeland a forty-five-minute sitting for a statue, to be erected in North Dakota. Col. Roosevelt wrote to Representative Louis B. Hanna, in charge of the matter, that he did not believe in statues to living men, but added that if his friends were going to have a statue, he thought it ought to be typical of his early days in North Dakota, either as a frontier farmer or a cowboy. The main thing was the right sort of a picture—whether it was a likeness of him did not matter.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the explorer, paid a visit to Mr. Roosevelt today and recalled to him the time when Roosevelt ten or twelve years ago that if any American discovered the pole, he would pick him up.

The municipality of Christiania tonight gave a dinner in honor of the former President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

In his address on "International Peace," the former President of the United States entered upon the most difficult field of European policy in a carefully worked-out thesis, advocated an international agreement that would serve to check the growth of armaments, especially naval armaments, and the formation by those great powers honestly bent on peace of a league of peace, and only to keep the peace among themselves, but to prevent by force if necessary its being broken by others.

PRIVATE CONFERENCES.

What Mr. Roosevelt had to say before the King and Queen of Norway and other representative personages constituted the main part of his private conversations he is having with the statesmen of Europe as occasion arises concerning the practical possibilities of collective action by the various governments for the enforcement of universal peace.

Mr. Roosevelt said it must be borne in mind ever that the great end in view was righteousness; and he explained, peace, generally good in itself, was never the highest good unless it came as the handmaid of righteousness. It became a very evil thing when it served merely as a mask for cowardice and sloth or as an instrument to further the ends of despotism or anarchy.

"A man is not worth calling a man," said the speaker, "who will not fight rather than, to do him injury and see those dear to him suffer wrong."

This principle, Mr. Roosevelt said, applied to nations.

The address was received with expressions of approval. At its conclusion, John Lund, vice-president of the Nobel Prize Committee, paid a tribute to Mr. Roosevelt and to the United States.

ROOSEVELT'S NOBEL ADDRESS ON PEACE.

It is with peculiar pleasure that I stand here today to express the deep appreciation I feel of the high honor conferred upon me by the presentation of the Nobel Prize.

The gold medal which formed part of the prize I shall always keep, and I shall hand it on to my children as a precious heirloom. The sum of money provided as part of the prize by the wise generosity of the illustrious founder of this world-famous prize system, did not, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, feel at liberty to keep.

I think it eminently just and proper that in most cases the recipient of the prize should keep for his own use the prize in its entirety. But in this case, while I did not act officially as President of the United States, I was nevertheless only because I was President that I was enabled to act at all; and I felt that the money must be considered as having been given in trust for the United States. I therefore used it as a nucleus for a foundation to forward the cause of industrial peace, as being well within the general purpose of your committee for in our complex industrial civilization of today the peace of righteousness and justice, the only kind of peace worth having is at least as much needed to curb the cruel greed of right rather than of part of the world of capital, to curb the cruel greed and violence of part of the world of labor, as to check a cruel and unhealthy militarism in international relationships.

THE GREAT END.

We must ever bear in mind that the great end in view is righteousness, justice as between man and man, nation and nation, the chance to lead our lives on a somewhat higher level, with a broader spirit of brotherly good will only and peace, generally good in itself, but it is never the highest good unless it comes as the handmaid of righteousness and justice, the only kind of peace worth having is at least as much needed to curb the cruel greed of right rather than of part of the world of capital, to curb the cruel greed and violence of part of the world of labor, as to check a cruel and unhealthy militarism in international relationships.

We despise and abhor the bully, the brawler, the oppressor, whether in private or public life, but we despise him less the coward and the voluptuary.

No man is worth calling a man who will not fight rather than, to do him injury or see those dear to him suffer wrong. No nation deserves to exist if it permit itself to lose the stern and virtuous virtues and the out regard to whether the loss is due to the growth of a heartless and absorbing commercialism, or to indulgence in luxury and soft effeminate ease, or to the dedication of a warped and timorous cowardice.

WORDS AND DEEDS.

Moreover, and above all, let us remember that words count only when they give expression to deeds or are to be translated into them. The leader of the people must not only have a scourge honest protest, but he must also have a practical method, and if we cannot attain all at one leap, we must advance towards it step by step, and with tenacity.

We are actually making some progress in the right direction.

Now having freely admitted the limitations of our work, and the qualifications to be borne in mind, I feel that I have the right to have my words taken seriously, and to have my judgment, great as it is, actually tried to do when I was for the time being the head of a great nation, and to have my honor and interest. I ask other nations to do only what I should be glad to see my own nation do.

THE ADVANCE CAN BE MADE ALONG SEVERAL LINES. First of all there are treaties of arbitration. There are, of course, treaties of arbitration, but a civilized community ought not to be limited to an arbitration treaty with them, at least until we have gone much further in the development of our kind of international police action. But all really civilized communities should have effective arbitration treaties among themselves.

I believe that these treaties can cover almost all questions liable to arise between nations, and that drawn with the explicit agreement that each contracting party will respect the honor and territory of its absolute sovereignty within that territory, and the equally explicit agreement that aside from the very rare cases where the nation is vitally concerned all other possible subjects of controversy will be submitted to arbitration, and that no nation would insure peace unless one party deliberately violated it.

Yet there is no adequate safeguard against such deliberate violation, but the establishment of a sufficient number of these treaties would serve to check the growth of armaments, especially naval armaments, and the formation by those great powers honestly bent on peace of a league of peace, and only to keep the peace among themselves, but to prevent by force if necessary its being broken by others.

of the peace of righteousness, that a power which really does believe in peace should place itself at the mercy of some rival which may at bottom have no such belief and no intention of acting on it. But, granted sincerely of purpose, the power which would world should find no insurmountable difficulty in reaching an agreement which would put an end to the present costly and growing extravagance of expenditure on naval armaments. An agreement merely to limit the size of ships would have been very useful a few years ago, and would still be of use; but the agreement should go much further.

Finally, it would be a master stroke if those great powers honestly bent on peace would form a League of Peace not only to keep the peace among themselves, but to prevent, by force if necessary, its being broken by others. The supreme difficulty in connection with developing the peace work of The Hague arises from the lack of any executive power to enforce the decrees of the court.

AUTHORITY RESTS ON FORCE.

In any community of any size the authority of the courts rests upon actual or potential force; on the existence of a police, or on the knowledge that the able-bodied men of the community are both ready and willing to see that the decrees of judicial and legislative bodies are enforced.

So it is with nations. Each nation must keep well prepared to defend itself until the establishment of a world police, or until the police power, competent and willing to prevent violence as between nations. As things are, the nations are in a state of anarchy, and the world is a scene of lawlessness.

tion Committee has received applications from various societies and civic, military and political organizations, expressing the expectation that the shelling a total which reaches nearly 40,000. But he names 20,000 as a conservative estimate.

One of the most recent applications is from Los Angeles, which will send a party of between twenty-five and thirty representatives to the conference across the continent to welcome the returning President.

The Spanish War veterans have asked permission to erect an "Arch of Welcome" over Fifth avenue in the neighborhood of Twenty-third street, and the committee now has the request under consideration.

In a statement given out today, Capt. Coby, secretary of the Reception Committee, says that as every effort will be made to keep the affair from being too stiff and formal, Col. Roosevelt will make only one address—that in response to Mayor Gaynor's welcome.

At the request of Col. Roosevelt, no dinner has been planned. The expected probably will go to Ogden Bay on the evening of his arrival.

"BACK TO FARM" A MYTH.

Secretary Wilson Says Movement Would Be Tragically City Man Would Starve.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, highest authority in this country on farming, believes the "back to the farm" movement is a myth. If it were to become a reality, he thinks it would develop into a farce, or worse, a tragedy.

"I have not seen any evidence of a 'back to the farm' movement," said he. "Two things are necessary for successful farming—practical experience and capital. The city man who goes to the farm without experience and money will starve. He will be a consumer and not a producer. No man can make a living on a farm unless he knows something about it."

"The city man who wants to go to the farm and hire himself as a practical farmer for a few years until he learns something about the business, the practical farmer can get ideas from reading literature written by men who are practical farmers themselves. The book farmer would be about as successful as the city man who goes to the farm as a laborer. If they have had practical experience in farming they will do better on the farms."

"It is possible," Secretary Wilson was asked, "for a farmer to make a living and a surplus on five and ten-acre tracts?"

"Yes, if he is a practical truck farmer and fruit grower, otherwise, no."

BOURNE'S TALK STIRS SENATE.

Oregon's Political System Starts Big Debate.

Southerners Want to Name Federal Officials.

Carter Finds Panacea in Proposed Postal Law.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Commending the election system of his State, Senator Bourne of Oregon, in an extended speech in the Senate, today aroused a general debate on the question of representative government, which dealt especially with the effect on the southern States of the system of selecting Federal officials for that section.

Mr. Bourne dwelt in terms of admiration on the methods of conducting elections and selecting officeholders in Oregon. No sooner had he taken his seat than Senator Bacon, of Georgia, entered upon a plea for more voice in the appointment of Federal officials for the southern States.

When Mr. Bourne concluded, Senator Brown of Nebraska asked general consent that 500 copies of the Bourne speech be printed for circulation, but Mr. Gallinger objected.

Mr. Brown spoke of the speech as a "remarkable one," and it had demonstrated the Oregon system was no longer an experiment.

The Georgia Senator's speech evoked extended remarks by Senator Carter of Montana, who advocated taking the postoffice out of politics.

Agreeing with a suggestion of his colleague, Mr. Clay, that the Senate should adopt a rule against the confirmation of any Federal appointee not endorsed by the Senators from his State, Mr. Bacon made a general condemnation of the referee system prevailing in the South.

Mr. Smith of Michigan opposed application of the classified service law to postmasters.

Mr. Carter found in the postal commission's proposed change of the postal laws a panacea for the ills mentioned. Under that system the postal service would be put upon a business basis, he said, and by the elimination of so many postmasters from politics the difficulties suggested by Mr. Bacon would be overcome.

The Carter scheme did not appeal to Mr. Hale. He denounced it as a plan for the obliteration of all State lines and the usurpation of power by the Federal Government.

HOUSE WANTS TO KNOW.

ASKS COTTON INQUIRY DATA.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The House Judiciary Committee today reported favorably a resolution offered by Representative Craig (Democrat of Alabama) calling on the Attorney General for information concerning the prosecution by the Department of Justice of the alleged "bull" pool in cotton.

The resolution asks that if anybody is being prosecuted for attempting to depress the price of cotton, the resolution wants the Attorney General to inform the House of all facts in connection with the investigation of Frank B. Hance, William Brown, Jas. A. Patten and Eugene Baskin, who are forming an alleged combination for the purpose of advancing the price of cotton.

Mr. Craig said that his resolution was introduced "for the purpose of having the House and the country informed as to whether there is any real reason for the investigation or whether the machinery of the government has been put in motion merely to depress the price of cotton."

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Par Capita Wealth Decreases.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Estimating that the population of the United States on May 1 was $10,123,000, the Treasury figures that the per capita circulation of money on that date was $4.15. This is a loss for April of 42 cents, and is explained by the large exports of gold during April, amounting to about $30,000,000. The amount of money in circulation on May 1 was $2,148,047,123.

Two New Battleships Sure.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The demand of the administration for two new battleships will be granted, the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs having practically decided today to accept the provision of the House bill on this subject.

WITNESS TALKS TO HEINZE.

Government Lawyer Takes Ecstacy With Conference With Defendant—Admits It.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, May 5.—Indications that the government is keeping a close watch on its witnesses was supplied by the first question put at today's session of the trial of F. Augustus Heinze in Judge Hough's court.

"Since yesterday afternoon you have conferred with the defendant; isn't that true?" United States Dist. Atty. Wile demanded of Frederick Eckstein who remained the witness stand.

Eckstein admitted that he had.

Eckstein is the clerk in the United Copper Company's office, who testified yesterday to holding large blocks of the company's stock, presumably for the convenience for the syndicate in market operations.

The government is seeking to connect Mr. Heinze with these operations, in an effort to show that the funds and credit of the Mercantile National Bank were unlawfully employed for speculative purposes while he was president of that institution.

Eckstein admitted "talking in a general way" about his testimony, with F. Augustus Heinze since yesterday's court session. A loan of $600,000 was shown to have been taken out in his name from the Mercantile National Bank, August 3, 1907. The government contends that was used for United Copper purposes.

DEMOCRATS TO RACE.

Three Democrats have been slated to make the race for judges of the Superior Court. They are Albert Lee Stearns and Calvert Wilson, of Los Angeles, and Stephen G. Long of Long Beach.

"Purity Pushers" are working over time with John Topham to run for State Senator in the Thirty-fourth district against Muggins McDonald on the Democratic ticket.

DESTRUCTION.

SEVERAL FIREMEN HURT, PROPERTY LOSS LARGE.

Blaze in Manufacturing District on North Main Street Causes Damage of Sixty Thousand Dollars to Buildings and Contents—One Man Severely Cut by Falling Glass, Others Overcome by Smoke.

FIRE of unknown origin, destroyed buildings and property valued at $60,000, between midnight and 1:15 o'clock this morning, when the premises of the McKinn Manufacturing Company, Nos. 91-92 North Main street, and the Los Angeles Engine Works, Nos. 925-925 North Main street, were practically demolished by flames. The storage warehouse of the McKinn Manufacturing Company, Nos. 91-92 North Main street, was totally destroyed and the Mill Iron Wright Company's property at No. 925 North Main street, was slightly damaged by heat and smoke.

In the battle to save the property surrounding the burning buildings, Fred Julian, a fireman, was severely cut on the hands and arms by falling glass.

Several firemen were severely injured or temporarily overcome by smoke. Shortly before 1 o'clock this morning Patrolman Brooke passed the factories and saw that all was in good order.

In the alarm to save the property surrounding the burning buildings, Fred Julian, a fireman, was severely cut on the hands and arms by falling glass.

PARTMENTS' ATTITUDE TOWARD ALL WHO WON'T ACCEPT THE FINALITY OF THE PRESIDENT.

"No, there sits one over there now," pointing to Special Agent H. T. Jones, one of the "prosecution's" witnesses, "who did not do so, and who still remains the rolls."

Mr. Brandeis then began questioning Mr. Ballinger about what he did when he returned here from the West last summer. He showed surprising familiarity with the Secretary's movements from the time he arrived here until he reached Beverly, where he went to see the President, even giving the names of those who met him, the hour of arrival, the hour of departure and the hotel where he stayed in Beverly.

"I am a little curious to know if you had a detective shadowing Mr. Ballinger," interrupted Senator Root, addressing Glavin's attorney.

"No," replied Mr. Brandeis. He added he would be glad to tell Mr. Root later how he happened to be so well posted, but the latter said he was quite satisfied.

PRESIDENT ON PINCHOT.

Mr. Ballinger read a letter which he said the President had written to him from Beverly, September 13, 1909.

It is as follows:

"My dear Secretary: I send you in letter form my comments on regard to Glavin's charges and other matters. I have studied your report, and I am convinced that I do not wish to make it impossible for him to remain in the public service."

"I value him highly as a public servant, and believe him capable of further great usefulness. His weakness is not in his inability to credit high and honorable motives to those who differ with him as to his method of doing things when he is pursuing a worthy object with all the enthusiasm of his nature."

"I know him well and am very fond of him personally, and mean, if possible, in spite of this defect, to preserve his ability, valuable experience and his devotion to the public service. Therefore, advise your subordinates to be very particular not to involve Mr. Pinchot in any matter, and to rest silent in view of the complete acquittal they receive from my letter."

"I would it be necessary, as it is not unlikely, to submit all this record and evidence to Congress. I shall be glad to have your authority and that of your subordinates to leave out of your answers any reference to Pinchot or to the part he took in bringing Glavin's report to my attention."

"I have every confidence in both you and Pinchot. I know you are both patriotic and sincere and both favor generally the same result as to conservation of the country's lands. I like you and insist on the legal way, while Pinchot is impatient of such restraint. I shall secure the high value of the service of you both for the great work before us."

"Sincerely yours,

"P. S.: You are at liberty to publish the May letter inclosed as soon as you desire. On second thought, perhaps it would be better to wait if I gave it out after I have given time enough for you to receive it. In other words, I shall give it out Wednesday night for Thursday morning papers."

COAL CARRYING HELPS COAST.

Incoming Ships Will Carry Native Products Abroad—Experiment Started.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TACOMA (Wash.) May 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With British, German and Norwegian steamships carrying coal from the Atlantic and Australian ports to the North Pacific and all seeking outboard cargoes, shipping men believe that another field for tramp tonnage to the coast has been opened.

A few weeks the Japanese steamer Temiya Maru, with 300 tons of coal from Tacoma, will discharge a cargo at Seward. It is understood the vessel will come to Puget Sound seeking for charter for a return across the Pacific.

If the project is found to be successful it is anticipated that the regular sailing of coasts from Japan, Korea, the Hokkaido Tankokien Kai-sha, with which coal shipment to Seattle has been arranged, will arrange three vessels will be put permanently on the run across the coast.

KING EDWARD ILL.

was the failure of the King to meet the Queen, who returned from the continent tonight. The Queen hurried to the palace and soon afterward the public learned by official announcement that the King had been ill two days.

The fact that his illness had been concealed from the public increased the alarm when it became known.

Thursday the King had a busy day. He gave an audience to Field Marshal Lord Kitchener and Premier Asquith, and visited the Royal Academy. Friday he gave several audiences, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Gladstone at a farewell luncheon on their departure for South Africa, and visited the theatre in the evening.

It was noticed, however, that while His Majesty was viewing the pictures at the Royal Academy, he looked pale and fatigued and the members of his entourage feared this might bring a return of the throat and chest trouble.

KEEPS AT WORK.

"The King spent the week-end at Sandringham, to combat the threatened attack and returned apparently better, but the sudden change in the weather this week was trying on His Majesty and finally compelled him to keep indoors."

He still attended to state business, however, granted audiences, including among others on Tuesday, an audience with Whitehall Reid, American Ambassador, and with Lord Roberts.

Wednesday he entertained Grand Duke Michael at luncheon.

It was only today that his physical ailments were able to induce the King to keep to his bedroom. The bulletin issued at 7:30 this evening showed Sir Richard Douglas Powell had been called in.

"The King is in good spirits despite his illness," said Sir Francis Laking and Sir James Reid will remain in Buckingham palace throughout the night.

It is said, however, that this is merely a precautionary measure. A consultation was held late tonight, but no definite report was given, it being reported that the King was resting well.

According to the latest report, the King's condition at midnight was more reassuring.

SPORTING NEWS, LOCAL AND TELEGRAPHIC.

CLASSY BUNTS DEFEAT SEALS.

Miller Has Enough of It in Three Innings.

Good Hitting and Fielding Delight Fans.

Roth and Bodie Show Fine Running Catches.

Los Angeles, 5; San Francisco, 3. If no one ever saw bunts win a ball game, there was a fine chance to observe the phenomenon yesterday for the Angles flew away from the Seals with a game that was made up largely of bunts that did not go half way through the infield.

You would have to go on a long journey to see such a performance where six of thirteen swats are dinky bunts, and two are Texas leaguers, and the soft pedal work yesterday must have been a shock to the glass that thinks no ball game is worth looking at unless the fence is battered in every inning. After the locals swung their heads off Wednesday trying to hit Henry, it was very much a surprise to see them come back yesterday and trim Miller with hits that did not go fifty feet.

Mohler thought so, too, for after three innings of it he sent Miller to the clubhouse and stuck in Ames, but this one could not stop the hits. It is hard work trying to beat a team that makes thirteen safe pokes at the ball. For those that did not care to watch the rain of swats there was a lot of fielding that was far above the ordinary. Roth and Bodie being particularly good. There was nothing that got away from Roth that there was any chance to get his stop of Bodie's fast grounder in the eighth being particularly good. He also made a fine catch of Berry's hot liner on the ground in the second. Both Tennant and Dillon made fine one-handed catches of bad throws to first, and Bodie showed several catches in center that made the fans forget the stuff of the Seals' fly in the seventh, with two out.

There was nothing particularly brilliant about the playing, with the exception of a few fielding stunts, and yet the fans seemed to get much pleasure out of it, that the Seals were skinned. It takes some ball playing to beat that bunch, for Mohler's lined men are playing their heads off every mite, but Dillon did it yesterday with baby hits.

NEEDS SPECTACLES. Ump Van Halten got through the day very well, but he had the fans after him a number of times on decisions on balls and strikes. He does not seem to be able to guess these, like the fellows do in the grand stand, and they razzed him frequently.

Daley started the first run for the locals with a beautiful bunt toward third base, in the first inning, and he beat it. A moment later he stole second, and Rose followed with a bunt to first base. Howard scored, and Daley followed with a bunt to first base, with a long foul back of third base, which Vitt foolishly caught.

Daley started the third with a base on balls, advanced to second on Rose's out, and scored on bunts by Howard and Dillon. The latter pair worked a double steal and Howard scored, after the catch of Murphy's fly to center. This inning was all that Miller wanted, and he was glad to get out of the game.

Ames did little better, but he got through the fourth and fifth without any runs being made off him. In the sixth, Nagle popped a safe Texas hit back of second base, ran to second on Daley's sacrifice, and scored. Rose followed with a double, with two out in the seventh, Delmas sent a long fly to center, but Pung muffed it. The Seals then took the lead in the third inning, when McDade scored on his Texas, Miller's sacrifice bunt, and Mohler's drive to center. Single by Moner, Tennant and Vitt scored, and Mohler's single made the third run.

NOURISHES FORCES 'EM OVER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] OAKLAND, May 5.—Oakland crowded the bases in the third inning at Freeman's Park today, and then defied Nourse, the Sacramento twirler, to put the ball over the plate. Four wild ones were tossed to Wolverton, forcing Cameron home, and then four missed the dead center when Mize was at bat.

After Cutshaw's score, Nourse was called to the bench and Whalen held Oakland in check for the balance of the session. Christian pitched a nice game, scattering six easy hits through the nine innings.

Twirler Gregg Pitches Record Game for Home Team and Fans Blame Umpire Hildebrand for Short End. McGredie Spiked by Ryan and Must Take Rest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] PORTLAND (Or.) May 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hogan and his Vernon squad put one over on the McGredie gang today by introducing George Schafer, who did things in large bunches to the Beavers. Result: Vernon, 3; Portland, 0.

Schafer pitched a steady game, for Portland and the big left-hander twirled a record game. He allowed but six hits, only two of which figured in the visitors' scores, and landed fourteen batters, though Gus Fisher missed the third strike on one of the whiffs, who afterward scored Vernon's third run. Gregg furthermore is credited with having walked but one man and that one was Coy, whom he hit with a wild shot in the second inning. In that inning the Vernon bunch struck the register twice. Coy went to first when hit by the ball; Lindsay's out advanced him to second and a single by Bill Fisher scored the first run. Drummond Brown bled a two-bagger to center, on which Fisher tallied.

In the fourth inning, with one down, Coy swung at the third strike and Gus Fisher dropped the ball, Coy beating the runner and hitting the stop sign. Fisher dropped the ball, Coy beating the runner and hitting the stop sign. Fisher dropped the ball, Coy beating the runner and hitting the stop sign.

NEEDS SPECTACLES. Ump Van Halten got through the day very well, but he had the fans after him a number of times on decisions on balls and strikes. He does not seem to be able to guess these, like the fellows do in the grand stand, and they razzed him frequently.

Daley started the first run for the locals with a beautiful bunt toward third base, in the first inning, and he beat it. A moment later he stole second, and Rose followed with a bunt to first base. Howard scored, and Daley followed with a bunt to first base, with a long foul back of third base, which Vitt foolishly caught.

Daley started the third with a base on balls, advanced to second on Rose's out, and scored on bunts by Howard and Dillon. The latter pair worked a double steal and Howard scored, after the catch of Murphy's fly to center. This inning was all that Miller wanted, and he was glad to get out of the game.

Ames did little better, but he got through the fourth and fifth without any runs being made off him. In the sixth, Nagle popped a safe Texas hit back of second base, ran to second on Daley's sacrifice, and scored. Rose followed with a double, with two out in the seventh, Delmas sent a long fly to center, but Pung muffed it. The Seals then took the lead in the third inning, when McDade scored on his Texas, Miller's sacrifice bunt, and Mohler's drive to center. Single by Moner, Tennant and Vitt scored, and Mohler's single made the third run.

ONE-HANDED CATCH.

NOURISHES FORCES 'EM OVER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] OAKLAND, May 5.—Oakland crowded the bases in the third inning at Freeman's Park today, and then defied Nourse, the Sacramento twirler, to put the ball over the plate. Four wild ones were tossed to Wolverton, forcing Cameron home, and then four missed the dead center when Mize was at bat.

After Cutshaw's score, Nourse was called to the bench and Whalen held Oakland in check for the balance of the session. Christian pitched a nice game, scattering six easy hits through the nine innings.

First Boxing for Choyinski.

FACES JEFFRIES AND IS CHILD IN HIS EMBRACE.
First Time in Thirteen Years That Famous Fighter Has Faced His Old Opponent—Paps Slugged Over the Eye When His Turn Came and Has Enough.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BEN LOMOND, May 5.—Joe Choyinski had his first tryout with Jim Jeffries today, and at the close of the three-round bout, declared that while he was in excellent shape himself, he was a mere baby in the hands of the big man.
Jeff gave Choyinski, who has assumed charge of the boxing end of the training camp, every chance to make a good showing in the opening exercises, but while Joe displayed much of his old time cleverness, Jeff was much the faster, showing the great progress he has made since the affair in San Francisco many years ago, when Choyinski succeeded in gaining a draw decision with Jeffries.
Only a handful of Jeff's trainers and handlers and a quartet of newspaper men witnessed the boxing in the handball court today. No visitors were permitted in the big inclosure for both Choyinski and Paps were to be taken on for the first time and Jeff has always been averse to the prying eyes of strangers on such occasions.
Paps was taken on first. Jeffries being as gentle with the middleweight as his natural ruggedness would permit. In the second round he gave Billy a rather stiff right over the eye, which severely shook up the boy from Kewanee and raised a bit of a lump, which probably will discolored before morning.
"Better not use that right on me," Paps whispered as they faded, and thereafter Jeff let him go entirely.
After the set-to Paps said: "I wish I had boxed with Jeff all the time. Not once did he hit me hard intentionally, and a little fellow like me can learn a lot boxing with him. I am a pretty strong fellow myself, but I was a mere baby in his hands. When he leaned his weight on me a couple of times I thought he was going to break my back."
Then came the bout with Choyinski. The two faced each other for the first time since the twenty-round draw in San Francisco in 1897. The two men smiled affectionately at each other as they put up their hands for the first round.
Like Paps, Choyinski looked like a pigmy alongside the former champion. Choyinski is evidently in better condition than any of the other boxers in the Jeffries camp. He displayed much of his old-time agility and prowess and made the most of the contest without being distressed.
They went at it with a will, Jeffries favoring Joe all the way, being even more gentle with him than with Paps. Choyinski was tickled to death with himself, as well as with Jeffries, and declared after a few more days of sparring he would show to much better advantage.
In his work with Choyinski, Jeffries delighted his trainers by displaying a lot of old-time ginger. He romped around the ring like a boy who loved the game. After the boxing he went through a couple of handball games at top speed.
The return of Mrs. Jeffries has had a good effect upon Jeffries' temper. One more he is like a big, good-natured boy.
After the boxing Jeffries indulged in rope skipping, bag punching and shadow boxing.

JURY SAYS "ACCIDENTAL."
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Death from accidental causes was the verdict returned today by the coroner's jury in the case of Tommy McCarthy, prize fighter, who was killed last Friday night in a battle with Owen Moran, the English lightweight champion.
The chief witness was Moran, who declared that in the sixteenth round he went after his opponent hard with the idea of knocking him out. He asserted that the fight was not fixed to go fifteen rounds, but that he did not extend himself until the final round which resulted in McCarthy's death.
Other seconds and managers of the prize fighters were placed on the stand but their testimony added nothing to the facts already known in regard to the fatality.
JEFFRIES PEEVED.
GOTCH ALSO HAS DATE.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, May 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That James J. Jeffries has no realization of the scope of the plans of Frank Gotch, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, who is matched for the greatest purse ever offered in the history of the sport, was demonstrated to the satisfaction of President Silve Fretti of the Empire Club today.
The arrival of the communication from Jeffries, dated Rowandean, Cal., and intended for the wrestling champion, requesting Gotch to "drop everything and come to the Ben Lomond training camp at once," caused some surprise.
"We wired Jeffries," said one of the club officials, "that Gotch would be in Chicago May 16 and begin training for his meeting with Zbyzsko and that he had signed articles for 60 per cent of the largest purse ever given for wrestling. We wired Jeffries that

TROOPS TO QUELL RIOTERS.

Governor Sends Soldiers to Check Ugly Strikers—Women and Children Cry for Food.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

DANVILLE, (Ill.) May 5.—Sheriff Helmick this afternoon requested Gov. Deneen to call out the militia in order to prevent trouble among miners at Westville. The Governor immediately ordered the companies at Danville and Champaign to assemble under arms and report to the sheriff.

Declaring that their wives and children were crying for food, and that they themselves were hungry, seven or eight hundred miners, mostly Slavs and Italians, massed at Westville today, and are marching on the coal mines of this district, driving the repair men from their places and demanding a share of the work.

From mine to mine in Kelleyville, Westville, South Westville and Little Verville, went the mob, armed with stones and clubs. At Kelleyville there was a fight. Some men were bruised, but none was seriously hurt. No shots were fired.

HYMNIST BERNARD'S VICTIM A SAN FRANCISCO.

Former Fellow Identifies "Kel" as Winfield Nicholls, Son of Well-to-Do Parents and Illustration of Promises—Fell Victim to Spells of Expert of "Self-Hypnosis."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Kellogg-Kel," they call him—the so-called slave of Pierre Bernard, in New York, is in reality Winfield Nicholls, the son of respectable and well-to-do parents in San Francisco," said L. C. Pedlar, a Washington artist, tonight.

"Kellogg started in San Francisco in 1905 as an illustrator on the San Francisco Chronicle. I was associated with him there. He was a young man of considerable ability, and was believed to have promise of marked artistic development. He was then 19 years of age.

"About that time he met Bernard. He seemed to fall at once under some sort of an hypnotic spell. He left his position with the Chronicle, left his home, and went to live with Bernard. They had apartments at Golden Gate avenue and Baker street.

"Bernard seemed to have considerable knowledge of 'Brahminism,' as he called it. He and Kellogg engaged in most curious performances. They called their tricks 'self-hypnosis.' They could sew their lips close together, drawing the strands of silk back and forth through the living flesh, without apparent pain. This man Bernard could slice a finger deeply with a knife or razor, and the blood would stop. He would then, without the application of apparent external pressure or the use of a tourniquet, stop the flow of blood instantly.

"Their apartments became notorious through the organs that were pulled off the neighbors' complaints. Kellogg, the racket, and the undesirable class of men and young women who frequented them. Complaint was made to the police, and they were forced to move. They then took up quarters at Pine and Jones streets.

"Finally their performances became such that the police gave them notice to quit town. The next time I saw the pair was in New York.

"I am sure that this young Nicholls is under the hypnotic influence of Bernard."

WANT SAN DIEGO TO QUIT.

The entire Congressional delegation met with the visitors this evening at the hotel, and after a long discussion the meeting broke up with chances of support from California's entire representation in Congress, except Smith, who holds out for San Diego. Col. Garland said that the entire State was opposed to San Diego's claims. F. J. Zeeland said:

"San Diego can have a very creditable exposition and the support of the whole State if she will come to the rescue of San Francisco. The entire delegation in Congress, except Smith, believe that if California presents a united front the resolution can be got through at this session. Congress approving San Francisco's plan for the exposition, and inviting the nations of the world to be represented there. A big exposition in San Francisco will insure the success of a fair to be given in San Diego, and the State will turn in and help the latter city to make its enterprise a success if she will not stand in the way of the higher event."

Efforts are being made tonight to get Col. D. C. Collier, representing San Diego, to see matters in this light, and to wire his city recommending that it support San Francisco's appeal to Congress for recognition.

INSURGENTS DECLARE THEY WILL STAND PAT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Insurgent Senators say they will not be swayed from their course on the railroad bill, no matter what tactics are pursued by the conservative Republicans.

Announcement of this unyielding stand was made at the conclusion of an insurgent conference tonight by Senator Cummins of Iowa.

For three days my life hung on a very slender thread with liver, kidney and heart trouble, and a very severe form of rheumatism. I was confined to bed with hands, wrists, feet and ankles so badly swollen that they bore no resemblance to parts of the human body.

"I had frequent sinking spells from heart weakness when I was thought to be dying and sometimes thought to be dead. My doctor, one of the directors of the State Hospital, a very successful man in his profession, told me to stop drinking coffee and use Postum, as he said coffee was the primary cause of my trouble.

"I took his advice at once and also discontinued medicines. Slowly the swelling disappeared, and the rheumatism left me; the sinking spells became less frequent, and I got out of bed and around the house. I was completely cured but it required some time.

"For the past three years I have been a perfectly strong, healthy woman, sleep well, with good appetite, good color, active, and energetic. It is a great pleasure to testify for Postum which has made me a well woman again. I have many friends here and in other parts of the state who are using Postum regularly, and I know to their very great benefit."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pinks. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

High-O-Me

That's the Way to Pronounce HYOMEI, the Money-Back Catarrh Cure.

As doubt exists in the minds of many readers of The Times, let us say that the above is the proper pronunciation of America's most wonderful catarrh cure.

You can get an indestructible inhaler, a bottle of HYOMEI and full instructions for use, for only $1. After you own a HYOMEI inhaler you can always get an extra bottle of HYOMEI for only 50c.

And if it fails to cure acute or chronic catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, croup, hay fever or coughs and colds, you can get your money back. The person who suffers from catarrh after such an offer as that, must like to snuffle, spit and wheeze, and be generally disgusting.

Breathes HYOMEI, it gives relief in five minutes; it cures in a short time, and Mrs. W. H. Williams of Milan, Mich., is glad to say so. She says: "I had a bad case of catarrh and severe cold in my head for a long time. The membranes and glands around by eyes and nose were badly swollen, inflamed, and were sore to touch. Using several remedies without any benefit, I was advised to try HYOMEI. Upon using this remedy I was soon cured of the catarrh trouble and am pleased to recommend HYOMEI."

HYOMEI is sold by druggists everywhere, and is guaranteed. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

GILLET'S REASONS.

is the place to hold this exposition for the following reasons:

"First—It is now and always will be the greatest commercial and industrial city on the Pacific.

"Second—It is midway between the great nations of Europe and Asia, and in the center of the Pacific Coast.

"Third—Foreign nations desiring to participate can sail their ships from their home ports into the harbor of San Francisco.

"Fourth—It has a harbor where the united navies of the world may safely anchor and maneuver if they so desire.

"Fifth—San Francisco and California will put millions of money into the enterprise to insure its success upon a scale magnificent enough to gratify the people of this nation.

GOT THE PEOPLE AND CLIMATE.

"Sixth—There are living over one million people.

"Seventh—San Francisco has the finest climate for an exposition of any city in the world, the thermometer forth through the living flesh, without apparent pain. This man Bernard could slice a finger deeply with a knife or razor, and the blood would stop. He would then, without the application of apparent external pressure or the use of a tourniquet, stop the flow of blood instantly.

"Eighth—The East, in 1913, will give a great exposition in New York City and therefore the next exposition favored by the government ought to be in the West.

"Ninth—From the beginning San Francisco has enthusiastically favored the construction of the canal, and the great effect it would have upon the commerce of the Pacific, and as early as 1894 commenced to plan for an exposition in celebration of the canal's completion.

"Tenth—The canal itself was the exhibit of greatest interest, and by holding the celebration in San Francisco, those people living in the East, South and in Europe can pass through the canal and thus see this wonderful piece of work.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Uniform Accounting.
State Treasurer W. R. Williams of Sacramento will discuss "Uniform Public Accounts" before the City Club at its luncheon at the Westminster Hotel tomorrow noon.

Called Off.
Owing to lack of interest, the Chamber of Commerce has postponed its excursion to San Luis Obispo. It may be arranged later in the summer, if the members signify their desire to take the trip.

Temple B'nai B'rith.
Regular Sabbath services at Temple B'nai B'rith will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. S. Hecht will conduct the services and speak this evening on "Misunderstanding."

Many Gold Medals Here.
Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce has just received seventy-five gold medals which were awarded local exhibitors at the recent Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle. A list of the firms and individuals receiving the medals will be compiled by the chamber. Owing to the care taken in striking off the medals, it took several months to prepare them for distribution.

Corporations Paying Up.
Collector of Internal Revenue Claude I. Parker is due in Washington tomorrow. His trip is made on official business and he is not expected back until about June. Reports showing the business of corporations are now about all in, and those recently notified of their delinquency are now paying the tax assessed levied against them. June 30 is the last date for the payment of these taxes.

Going to Distant Conventions.
President Scott of the Chamber of Commerce applied to the city council yesterday to represent the chamber at the forthcoming conventions. F. Q. Story will attend the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange in New York. A. P. Griffith will go to the country law convention at Dallas, and W. A. Moody will be the delegate to the meeting of the National Playground Association, Rochester, N. Y.

Injured in Auto Collision.
Thomas Moorehouse, manager for the Wood-Curtis Co., No. 334 1/2 Central avenue, was painfully injured yesterday morning in a collision between automobiles at Tenth and Hill streets. Moorehouse was driving his car over the crossing when another machine struck it from the rear. The injured man was removed to the Receiving Hospital. The left side of his face was skinned and the left ear torn in two.

Seize Lot of Striped Bass.
Assistant Fish and Game Commissioner H. I. Pritchard yesterday seized 72 pounds of striped bass from the "Merchants' Ice and Cold Storage Company." The bass reached Los Angeles a few days ago from the New San Francisco Fish Dealers' Association. Pritchard procured a search warrant and took the fish, which he held pending an investigation. The striped bass season does not open until July 1, and therefore, the commissioner charged the game laws have been violated.

Knights Templars' Election.
Charles L. Logan, who has been president of Los Angeles Commandery No. 8, Knights Templars, for several years, was elected eminent commander last night. During his several years' work as prelate, Mr. Logan has visited the sick, comforted the dying, and performed the last rites over many of his brother Masons. Other officers elected by the commandery are: William Booth, Generalissimo; A. J. Copp, Captain General; Leo Youngworth, Senior Warden; A. J. Reed, Junior Warden; Walter Jergin, Treasurer; Freeman G. Teed, Recorder.

To Appear Before State Case.

Attorneys A. F. and Joseph Call left for Washington yesterday to argue the citrus fruit freight rate case before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The case is set for Wednesday next. A delegation of fruit growers accompanied the lawyers. Several questions are to be decided. One is whether the railroads are justified in raising the rate on lemons from $1.15 to $1.50 a box; another is, who is to be allowed to pre-cool and ice the fruit. The growers are also clamoring to have the present freight tariff of $1.15 a box on oranges reduced.

They Seek Improvements.

Property owners in the territory between Lake Shore and Union avenues and First and Council streets organized the Belmont-Rockwood Improvement Association Wednesday night at No. 1569 West First street. Some of its objects are to bring about the improvement of the neighborhood as a place of residence, to secure the cleaning of sidewalks and vacant lots, and as soon as it may reasonably do so obtain the removal of oil tanks and derricks from this territory. A meeting will be held next Wednesday evening, at the same address and property owners in the district are invited.

Banquet for Hotel Man.

Honoring the retiring president of the Southern California Hotel Men's Association, John S. Mitchell, hotel men of the Southwest have arranged a banquet at the Hayward for 8 o'clock next Tuesday evening. Harry Fryman, president of the association, will be chairman. He has named Samuel J. Whitmore as toastmaster, and announced the speakers to be E. L. Potter, Walter Raymond and George W. von Ache. In addition to the banquet plans, Mr. Fryman yesterday gave out the names of the reception committee of the association for the coming year. Those included are Edward Duggan, C. A. Bennett, H. C. O'Donnell, A. E. Bengel, John G. Althouse and Lee Holliday.

Talk on House Furnishing.

The Home Culture Club of the Young Women's Christian Association will have an open meeting today at 2 o'clock, at which Mrs. Laura B. Doolittle will speak on house furnishing, her special topic being "The Dining-room and Kitchen." She uses numerous slides in illustrating her talk, and is glad to answer questions. Every one interested in the subject is invited.

Loving Cup for Former Fire Chief.

Walter Lips, formerly chief of the Fire Department and now a deputy sheriff, was the recipient, Wednesday evening, of two tokens of esteem from the firemen he once commanded. About twenty of them surprised him at his home at No. 2613 Brighton avenue. They carried with them a loving cup and a gold-framed resolution. The cup is mounted on an ornate stand. It is silver with gold inlay. On the front of the cup is inscribed "Walter Lips, Fire Chief, 1888-1892." The resolution, similar to those the chief won on his helmet. On the other is a miniature of engine No. 1, which Lips drove before he became chief. The presents were paid for by a voluntary collection taken up among the firemen all over the city.

IN TWIST OF WRIST IS DEATH OF DRIVER.

Lozier Car Turns Turtle, Kills H. I. Fennimore and Injures Two Passengers—In Trying to Avoid Collision Accident Happens.

SWERVING the automobile which he was driving in order to avoid a collision with another machine, which was speeding down the Crenshaw boulevard hill on West Adams street, H. I. Fennimore, of the firm of Nash & Fennimore, agents for the Lozier car, was killed yesterday evening when his heavy roadster turned turtle, rolled over and over, and crushed him beneath a pile of wreckage.

Hugo Goldschmidt, owner of the California Winery, No. 616 South Main street, and J. L. Eligholz, No. 1232 Crenshaw boulevard, salesman for the Lozier car, were riding with Fennimore when the accident occurred, and were pitched out, sustaining bruises, cuts and internal injuries. They were taken to the California Hospital, where it was announced last night that they would recover. The body of Fennimore was taken to the Booth & Boyson undertaking establishment.

The accident happened shortly after 5 o'clock, when Fennimore was driving into the city, after a trip to the beach. He had been showing the car to Goldschmidt, an intending purchaser. They were running east on West Adams street, and were approaching Crenshaw boulevard, when they noticed another big machine coming down the hill on the boulevard, making such speed that there was danger of a collision. Fennimore turned the wheel of the big Lozier and it struck the curb.

The force of momentum threw Goldschmidt and Eligholz several feet in front of the overturning car, but the driver was caught by the steering gear and crushed. Fennimore died before he reached the hospital. He was known as a reckless driver, but had perfect control of the machine, which is known as the "Lakewood" type. It is the largest and most powerful of the Lozier make.

NEVER HEEDED.

A peculiarity of the accident is that the car which forced the wreck and caused the death of one man and the injury of two others, did not stop, and the occupants apparently did not see that the machine which turned over for them met with disaster a few feet down the street from the crossing. The unknown speeder kept on down the boulevard, and no one obtained its number or a description of it.

Charles V. Stenham, foreman of the Lozier shop, arrived at the scene of the wreck within ten minutes and examined the scene. He found that all of whom saw the collision with the curbstone which killed Fennimore, but none of them was able to tell anything about the car which forced the sudden turning out. They all saw it, but human nature is such that they were watching the men whose lives were endangered.

J. L. Eligholz has been in three automobile accidents within the past year, two of which were serious. Last July he narrowly escaped death when he collided with a burning wreckage of another high-power touring car.

Fennimore was prominent in the automobile world. Besides having been a member of a large firm which sold one of the highest-priced cars on the market, he was an officer in several dealers' associations, and well known socially. Nash & Fennimore have their salesrooms at No. 1000 South Olive street, and a shop at No. 2414 West Seventh street, in the rear of the Fennimore home at No. 2418. He was married and leaves a widow, but no children.

WAS PROSPECTIVE BUYER.

Hugo Goldschmidt was a prospective buyer of a car and was looking over the field when he was hurt. He received cuts on the forehead and an injury to one of his hips. It is believed he will be able to be out of the hospital in a few days. He lives with his brother at No. 1208 South Alvarado street.

Fennimore and his wife lived with his father and mother at No. 2414 West Seventh street. Dr. H. D. Fennimore, father of the dead automobile man, is a veterinary surgeon.

Many stories were current last night about a Marmon car driven by a man whose name is supposed to be Starkey. He was said to have stopped in the middle of West Adams street, blocking the road so that the party in the Lozier car was forced to avoid him and also careful investigation of this rumor did not bear it out, and there was only one man in the neighborhood of the accident who remembered seeing a Marmon car. He declares it did not stop, and disappeared before the time when Fennimore was killed.

The Receiving Hospital, Police Station and newspaper offices had many inquiries last night about the death of Fennimore, giving a partial indication of the prominence of the man.

The police will investigate the case today, and will endeavor to find the unknown speeder who forced Fennimore's party to turn turtle.

SUCCESSFUL DEALER.

Henry I. Fennimore was one of the prominent automobile dealers of Los Angeles. He was well known on automobile row as agent for the Lozier car. Less than two years ago Fennimore started business in a small garage and repair shop in the rear of his home on West Seventh street. Later he removed to Tenth and Olive streets, where, as junior partner of the firm of Nash & Fennimore, he became one of the successful automobile dealers of Los Angeles. He served on the Show Committee of the Licensed Automobile Show and helped to make the Flisla Park motor exhibit a success.

Though one of the youngest of the Los Angeles dealers, Fennimore has sold more Loziers than any other in the West. He was the outside man of the firm and it was his custom to make trips in the new cars demonstrating to prospective buyers.

Possessed of a desire to "speed," Fennimore was lately in the habit of driving his fast Lozier cars to the limit. The machines will make from sixty to seventy miles an hour, and they are geared from the factory. He enjoyed testing them.

It was no uncommon occurrence for Fennimore to take parties out in the car for fast trips on the boulevards and roads just out of the city, and on these trips the car was often sent at a speed of seventy miles an hour. He was an experienced driver. The model in which he was killed arrived

TICKER'S LURE BANE OF BANE.

Missing Man Believed Hiding in Los Angeles.

Defaulting Treasurer Santa Monica Seen Here.

Request for the Grand Jury to Investigate.

The lure of the bucket shops and the fascination of the market tickers are believed to be holding Ralph Bane, defaulting City Treasurer of Santa Monica, in Los Angeles.

Information was placed in the hands of Detective Murray yesterday to the effect that Bane was seen here Monday afternoon. The man who gave the information stated further that Bane did not appear worried, talked and laughed over little matters of common interest, and bade him a cheery goodbye.

In Santa Monica Bane was last seen Friday afternoon. He left supposedly on a trip to Porterville to take up an option on a quarter-section of land. Nothing further was heard from him there until Tuesday, when J. B. Proctor, secretary of the Elks Lodge, received a letter from Bane disclosing the default.

Bane had been taking chances with the city's money. He admitted it in his letter to Proctor. He stated that he had been playing the stock game, and that it had proved too much for him. He had lost the city's money, and he had literally looted the treasury, and yet so firm had been the hold upon him that he could not stop stock gambling.

The police are banking on the attraction of the ticker, and are searching for Bane. There are several strange features about his disappearance and the details attending it.

His default was made public until Tuesday. Up to the time of the exposure he made no effort to keep under cover. He talked freely with friends in Los Angeles and among men who knew him it was common knowledge that he had been here since leaving Santa Monica Friday afternoon.

As soon as the officers learned that Bane was wanted, his friends, circulated the report that he had left for Mexico, Honduras or Guatemala, and that as a matter of fact he was probably in the city on his journey southward. Men who knew that Bane could not possibly be out of the country assisted in spreading that report.

Bane likes the theaters and crowds. He likes the stock-gambling game, and he had plenty of money when he left Santa Monica. The officers working on the case do not believe that he would go to Mexico. They believe that he is in the city, and that he is either here or that he may have gone to San Francisco.

The northern officers were notified last night to keep a close watch for him, and a careful description was given to every man on the local police force. Detective Murray stated yesterday that he believes the missing man is within reach, probably under the protection of friends.

After issuing notice of a reward for the capture of Bane, the Santa Monica Council adopted a resolution yesterday asking the presiding judge of the Superior Court to call the attention of the grand jury to the fact that the city's fiscal officers are charged with embezzling and misappropriation of public moneys.

It is the opinion of the Council that the grand jury institute a complete examination of the official business and proceedings of the city from the date of the charter. The resolution asks that any officer who has been found to be violating the law be punished as he is being punished to die.

The language of the resolution is so emphatic that it is not soon for doubt as to what it means. Santa Monica has been a chartered city for less than three years, the first set of officers having retired with the beginning of the present year. While the resolution mentions no names, the process of elimination leaves the finger of suspicion pointing in the direction of but few officers. The missing treasurer is one of the number. He had just entered upon his second term.

When the auditors who are experting his books concluded their work yesterday they had succeeded in verifying the misappropriation of an item of $1800 which represented taxes that had been collected by him, but which had not been accounted for.

The City Clerk is the one other responsible financial officer. G. A. Murray is the incumbent. He is serving his first term, and says if there have been misappropriation of a solitary cent he will thank the grand jury for pointing out the error. The present Clerk is also a year ago numerous irregularities were brought to light in connection with the City Clerk's financial transactions. The Clerk is deputy to the Street Superintendent, and as such has the handling of large sums of money in connection with the street improvements.

These shortages and discrepancies were at first explained as being the result of clerical error, but Hemingway has ever since been kept busy reimbursing the city for the "fund." Hemingway sacrificed the equity of the city in a home and also his interest in property owned by him in Los Angeles.

President Dow of the Santa Monica Council, who was also a member of the last Council, is also a member of the present grand jury. He will ask to be relieved from duty on that body while the inequities complained of Mayor Dudley, who was Mayor when the alleged embezzlements were taking place, and also president of the Board of City Trustees for several years prior to the adoption of the new charter, said last night:

HELD LARGE CASH BALANCE.

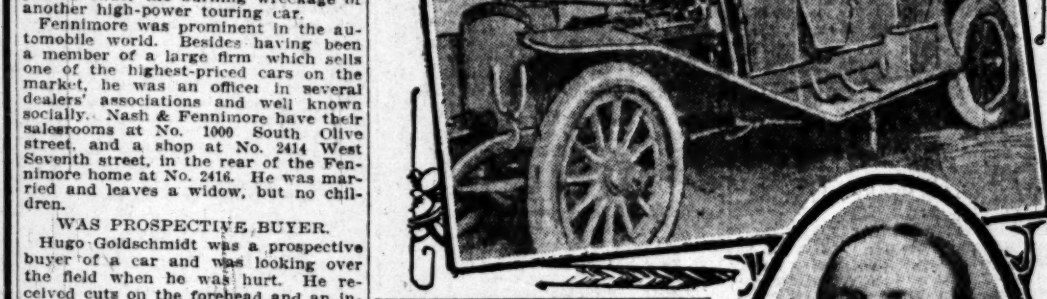

"When the city's money was placed in the banks on deposit, the Treasurer could not draw against it without first all securing an order from the Council, and the check so drawn had to be signed by the Mayor and the Clerk. Bane always objected to this, as he claimed it caused him a lot of unnecessary work, and he made that his excuse for keeping as much money on hand as he did.

As an incentive to encourage detectives to make a quick and active effort to capture Bane, the Council yesterday offered a reward of $200, together with 5 per cent. of all moneys found upon Bane. As his stealings are alleged to aggregate but little less than $20,000 the theory of the Councilmen is that he left with a tidy sum. The members of the Council thought the addition to the reward of 5 per cent. of the amount of money recovered might get quick action and result in speedily bringing the recalcitrant official to justice.

With a grand jury investigation pending and prayed by the Council, and a $20,000 hole knocked in the bottom of Santa Monica's treasure box, the woods are, nevertheless, full of candidates to succeed the missing Bane as Tax Collector and Treasurer. The appointment is to be made by the Council, and already the list of candidates is large and growing larger every hour. Bane's deputy, Miss Pearl Hunting, is serving by appointment as Treasurer pro tempore.

WILL ENLARGE REPAIR SHOPS.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AND SANTA MONICA TO BUILD.

Quarter of Million Dollars for Local Improvements by Espes, While Rival Road Will Extend Roundhouse to Accommodate Monster Engines Ordered.

Western traffic of the Southern Pacific has grown to such an extent that the company has been forced to enlarge the local repair shops. This enlargement will be begun soon, and $250,000 will be spent in expanding the plant already in use and adding buildings in and around the present works.

This work will probably not mean that more men will be employed at present, but it will mean that the possible output of the shops will be greatly increased for many labor-saving devices will be installed.

This improvement has been made necessary, not only by the increased transcontinental traffic of the past few months, but also by the installation of additional western runs.

The Santa Fe is not behind in the construction work, for within the next few days the contract for the new shops at San Bernardino will be let. These shops will contain twenty-two additional engine pits. There are now eighteen pits inside and eleven pits outside. These eleven pits will be covered by the new shops and the additional pits will be built.

In addition to this, the big roundhouse at San Bernardino will soon have to be reconstructed. It has been announced that twelve of the new 20-ton Mallet engines, which will be ordered by President Ripley on his return to the East, will be placed in service out of San Bernardino over the mountains, and the round-house will have to be enlarged to accommodate them.

At present it is necessary to uncouple the tanks from the big engines to run them over the turn-table and to carry them across the approach, which the tender is backed over by a switch engine.

While there were only two of these engines in use, the company could get along, but the addition of at least twelve more of the monsters makes the matter entirely different. The circle of the round-house will be extended, and the turn-table and the approach lengthened to 125 feet each instance. The same plan will be carried out in every round-house in which these engines are placed.

Work on the Fullerton cut-off of the Santa Fe is more than half completed and three miles of the track is being finished rapidly.

At Placenta, on the cut-off, a station is being rushed to completion. The line will be opened about June 15.

President Ripley of the Santa Fe talked over depot plans with the members of the Chamber of Commerce Union Station Committee yesterday afternoon. No programme was agreed upon, nor was any new proposition advanced. Ripley told the committee that he is interested in seeing the matter settled, but that there does not appear to be a feasible plan at present for the proposed union station.

"Nothing new was advanced at the conference," said F. W. Blanchard, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Committee. "We were pleased to be invited to meet President Ripley and spent about an hour going over some of the tentative plans. It appears a hopeful sign that the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe officials realize that a new railroad station is a necessity in this city. They also are aware that it will require considerable planning to get just the right place."

AT THE CITY HALL.

HEWITT CHOSEN HARBOR COUNSEL.

TO RESIGN AS CITY ATTORNEY IN TWO WEEKS.

Board of Public Works Wishes to Hasten Organization of Harbor Bureau and Asks Council to Authorize Employment of City's Legal Advisor--Shenk May Succed.

As its first step in organizing the Harbor Bureau the Board of Public Works has asked permission of the Council to employ Leslie R. Hewitt, now City Attorney, as special counsel for the bureau. The request was discussed by the Council in executive session late yesterday afternoon and while it was unanimously approved by the members, action was postponed for reasons that the members say are satisfactory to all concerned.

This means that Mr. Hewitt's resignation will be sent to the Council a week from next Tuesday and that his successor will probably be elected by the Council on the same day. It is probable that John W. Shenk, present assistant attorney, who is the closest to Hewitt of all his staff of assistants, will be chosen. He has the endorsement of Hewitt and many members of the administration and the only opposition he is likely to receive is from friends of Guy W. Eddie, City Prosecutor, who threaten to make him a candidate. Eddie, O. Lewis and Earl B. Gorman were appointed from the civil service list; W. J. Shreve, emergency, and Guy W. Eddie, from friends of Guy W. Eddie, City Prosecutor, who threaten to make him a candidate. Eddie, O. Lewis and Earl B. Gorman were appointed from the civil service list; W. J. Shreve, emergency, and Guy W. Eddie, from friends of Guy W. Eddie, City Prosecutor, who threaten to make him a candidate.

"The purpose of the city to construct harbor improvements at San Pedro and Wilmington imposes on this Board duties of unusually great importance and magnitude, in the performance of which we feel that it will be absolutely necessary that the Board should have the assistance of a competent attorney at law, to give special and exclusive attention to matters of a legal nature connected with the proposed harbor improvements. We find the preliminary consideration of the work greatly embarrassed by uncertainties as to what the city legally can do at law, to give special and exclusive attention to matters of a legal nature connected with the proposed harbor improvements. We find the preliminary consideration of the work greatly embarrassed by uncertainties as to what the city legally can do at law, to give special and exclusive attention to matters of a legal nature connected with the proposed harbor improvements.

"Mr. Hewitt, the City Attorney, has, at the request of this Board, personally given attention to the great number of legal questions that have already arisen in relation to the proposed harbor improvement, so far as he could do so in his private capacity; but, owing to the heavy duties and responsibilities resting upon him as the head of his department, it is impossible for him to devote the time and attention to the harbor improvement, so far as he could do so in his private capacity; but, owing to the heavy duties and responsibilities resting upon him as the head of his department, it is impossible for him to devote the time and attention to the harbor improvement.

"Under these circumstances, we feel that the best interests of the city require, either that Mr. Hewitt should be induced to relinquish his office and undertake this work as special counsel, employed on terms satisfactory to Mr. Hewitt and approved by the Council, or that some other competent and skillful attorney should be engaged by the city for this purpose. This Board would prefer that the services of Mr. Hewitt should be secured for this special work, because of his familiarity with the subject, and of the fact that his splendid record in the City Attorney's office would insure popular approval of his employment.

"We, therefore, beg to lay this matter before your honorable body and to request and recommend that it receive attention and your hands at the earliest practicable date."

Hewitt has been City Attorney since 1907, having been elected to succeed W. B. Matthews, now counsel for the aqueduct bureau. He was Matthews' assistant in the last election; he was not a lawyer but a ladies' tailor. City Attorney Hewitt receives $3000 a year, which is only slightly more than most of the city employees. But the charter limits the salary to this amount. As counsel for the harbor bureau it is the purpose to allow him the same compensation as Matthews receives, which is $3000 a year.

The session of the Council was not wholly taken up by the harbor improvement matter. The Council also discussed the matter of the harbor enterprise will be started before the power plans are put in operation. As the details concern the financing of both enterprises, the Council felt justified in holding an executive session with only President Hubbard of the Board of Public Works and City Attorney Hewitt. When Hewitt's matter was discussed he retired from the session.

SEES HIS FINISH.

Alexander Sandow Hamilton, fireman, whose tribulations in the tale of Lean Shark George Arnold, proved the ulcer for the lever used by Fire Commissioner Hawley in extricating all members of the department from loan shark shackles, and eventually all city employees, has come to a tearful end. Yesterday his resignation as a member of the fire department was refused and he was cited to appear for trial next Thursday for insubordination.

Charges were made by Capt. Moore of Engine Company No. 13, that Hamilton had not only disobeyed an order but had told the captain to seek a climate much warmer than Los Angeles. Charged, though he was, Commissioner Hawley insisted on Hamilton being returned to his station. Hamilton was hurt in the service last December, and while off duty was found to be in dire poverty. His salary, pledged to Arnold, his was a typical case and Hawley, who learned of it after he became a member of the commission, used it to demonstrate the misery that the loan sharks bring to their victims. Because Hamilton had not reported his injury he could not be paid and to avoid paying any money to Arnold who had power of attorney to draw anything due Hamilton, Hawley went before Council and got an allowance. Hamilton revoked his power of attorney and Arnold was beaten.

Out of Hamilton's case grew the agitation to drive the loan sharks out of the City Hall and this has succeeded. But Hamilton is now a victim of the merciless loan shark. He is said "Little Sandow," as he is called, been behaving badly for some time. His insult to his captain brought his undoing and, unless he can produce a good defense, the commission will dismiss him next week.

In a letter to Commissioner Hawley, Hamilton intimates that he has been followed by the merciless loan shark and that his disobedience was brought about by Arnold. But Hawley says he does not believe this. He is satisfied that Hamilton was a fortunate instrument to aid others and that he merited all the aid he got, but that his present trouble is his own fault.

MUST, BUT DIDN'T.

BOILER PERMIT REFUSED.

An application by the Barber Asphalt Paving Company for permit to install a steam boiler in its plant, 1228 East Twenty-eighth street, was denied by the Fire Commission yesterday.

Even though the City Attorney went in an opinion that it must be granted. A protest represented by a number of women who live near the plant was more potent than the cold law laid down by the attorney.

The opinion was to the effect that the commission cannot grant a steam boiler permit in a residence district and must refuse the permit. As the Barber plant is in an industrial district he held the mandate must be obeyed. But the commission thought if it has the power to grant it also has the power to refuse it. It is probable the company will take steps to enforce the rights guaranteed to it by the provisions of the industrial district ordinance.

Fireman G. A. Criss, reported as a "bad acting member of Engine Company No. 1," was also cited for trial on charges to be promulgated by the chief engineer, D. J. Gray, and suspended for failing to pay a debt and also cited for trial.

G. J. Dunn, Edward Duce, H. C. Levine, O. Lewis and Earl B. Gorman were appointed from the civil service list; W. J. Shreve, emergency, and Guy W. Eddie, from friends of Guy W. Eddie, City Prosecutor, who threaten to make him a candidate. Eddie, O. Lewis and Earl B. Gorman were appointed from the civil service list; W. J. Shreve, emergency, and Guy W. ## COURT HOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS. MINOR CRIMINALITIES. In Judge Willis' court yesterday, Anderson Miller, charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon, pled not guilty and his hearing was set for May 27. George Hutton, who had pleaded guilty to the charge of grand larceny, was given two years' probation, and J. F. Goyton, charged with interference and conspiracy of the defendants.

State of Sonora, Mex., near the city of Torrey, for $9000. Afterward Davis made a contract with W. H. Ward for the sale of the property for $20,000, and Ward entered upon the claim and put in about $500 in work. But the defendant, Edward Ward, abandoned the mine, on account of the interference of the defendants, and Davis says he is out the difference between the contract price with the defendants and what Ward was to have given for the property--$15,000, in addition to $550 in the way of commission. The plaintiff alleges that he has every reason to believe that Ward would have fulfilled his contract with him and paid the $25,000 but for the interference and conspiracy of the defendants.

Montana Man Defendant. Kitty Dowlin was granted a decree of divorce in Judge Davis' court yesterday, on the ground of failure to provide for the support of her child, Blackford, Montana, in August, 1908, and the action for a legal separation was begun by the wife in just one year. The defendant, who did not appear, is a resident of Forsythe, Mont., where he has large property interests, it is alleged.

Guilty of Burglary. In Judge Davis' court yesterday, Frank T. Lorne pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, and on the condition of probation was fined in his behalf. The matter will be taken up Monday.

Ward for the sale of the property for $20,000, and Ward entered upon the claim and put in about $500 in work. But the defendant, Edward Ward, abandoned the mine, on account of the interference of the defendants, and Davis says he is out the difference between the contract price with the defendants and what Ward was to have given for the property--$15,000, in addition to $550 in the way of commission. The plaintiff alleges that he has every reason to believe that Ward would have fulfilled his contract with him and paid the $25,000 but for the interference and conspiracy of the defendants.

The "Korrek Shape" Shoe

FOR MEN

There are other shoes—at other prices—but none that compare with "Korrek Shape" Shoes, if you want value for your money. It is comparatively easy to make a good shoe to sell at a high price—and it's no trick at all to turn out cheap shoes, that look well at first—but to combine appearance and quality, at a reasonable price, is quite another thing.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MRS. FRED P. NEWPORT entertained charmingly with a theater box party at the Majestic, Wednesday, in compliment to Miss Fern Wedder, who, with her parents, has come to this city from Billings, Mont. to reside. Following the performance tea was served at Hotel Alexandria where a pretty arrangement of pink sweet peas ornamented the table. There were covers for Miss Winnie Howland, Miss Ruth Greppen, Miss Doris Hutchinson, and Mrs. Wedder. Mrs. Newport will entertain with a luncheon of sixty covers, Tuesday at Mt. Washington Hotel.

Coming Affair.
Miss Maude Elizabeth Richards will entertain with a large card and dancing party next Thursday at her home, No. 3208 Western avenue. More than 250 invitations have been issued.

Mrs. Blinn to Entertain.
Mrs. B. F. Blinn will entertain with a luncheon and five hundred party the 18th inst., at the Breakers Club in Ocean Park.

Large Wedding.
More than 400 guests witnessed the wedding last evening in Christ Church of Miss Rose Zobelein and Charles Jacob Lick of St. Louis, which was solemnized by the pastor, Rev. Baker P. Lee, amid a profusion of yellow blossoms and greenery. Miss Zobelein was elaborately gowned in Duchesse lace and corsage satin, with a yoke of point applique. This was made with a court train over which fell a long tulle veil. A bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley completed the dainty attire. Mrs. Will Maier, the matron of honor, wore a long-colored creation, hand embroidered, and carried an arm bouquet of lily of the valley and ferns, tied with yellow satin ribbon. Instead of the wedding march, Miss Zobelein asked eight young friends to sing, having enjoyed a six months' outing in the East. The home was with choice flowers which were arranged in each room. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur J. Cook, Mrs. Henry Morris, Mrs. Leon F. Moss, Mrs. Carl L. Doron, Mrs. James S. Phillips, Mrs. Percy W. Ross, and Mrs. Edward J. Elson. Mrs. J. M. Jones rendered beautiful selections on the harp during the afternoon. Last evening Mrs. Miller entertained informally for her assisting ladies and their husbands. Cards were played.

The complaint, which was filed by Attorneys O'Melveny, Stevens & Millikin of Los Angeles, explains that there is no other location the company can obtain for its sales, and that the defendant will inflict great damage and injury upon the company's property unless restrained.

KNOWS WHERE COOK IS.
SANTA BARBARA, May 5.—Dr. Roosevelt O. Stebbins of New York, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Arctic Club, which gave a banquet to Cook, September 23, last, confided to a friend he visited here recently, that he knows where Cook is, corresponds with him and that in due time Cook will be vindicated. He denounces the recent Mt. McKinley trip as a Peary scheme and declares Cook has expeditions en route to Etah and Mt. McKinley to verify his claims.

Untried lost no time in availing themselves of their opportunity, and they gerrymandered the State in such a fashion that some districts were twisted like a corkscrew—but misshapen as some of them were, they were made Democratic, and that was the object of the Democratic boss, had in view. A combination between the Democrats and renegade Republicans in the Legislature next January, might result in incalculable injury to California.

Something like a political night school was conducted last evening in Woods' Hall, Highland Park, under the auspices of the Old Hickory Democratic Club. Information on a variety of matters was imparted by the speakers of the occasion, and there was general elucidation along lines No. 1 might lead the Democracy to the public counter this coming November. M. Hammack, president of the club, told about the mistake that was made in adopting the present State primary election law, and Prof. Thomas H. Kirk, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, explained why the recent State conference of the untried did not accomplish anything further than to assist "Dore Bell to slap Pinhead McCarthy." "The State Situation," was discussed by Charles J. Cook, who was a contemporary of "Old Hickory," and has been voting the straight Democratic ticket ever since. Prof. Lorin Handley, who wants the Democratic nomination in this district for Congress, sized up "The National Situation." There was a large gathering of voters of all shades of political opinion.

All candidates for places on the Democratic ticket at the August primaries will have their verification petitions circulated by the Democratic State Central Committee, according to an order issued last yesterday, by the Executive Committee, at San Francisco. Each candidate for a State, district or Congressional nomination will secure the requisite number of signatures to the paper without any further effort on the part of the petitioner. No discrimination will be made where there are more than one candidate for the same office, but the committee will reserve the right to reject the petition of any candidate whom it considers undesirable. Those who care to avail themselves of the privilege are expected to have their papers ready by May 21, and the State Central Committee will meet again on May 25 to pass on their names. At this meeting the time and place for the State convention will be fixed.

Frank Mattison, of Santa Cruz, has formally entered the fight for the Republican nomination for State Controller to succeed A. B. Nye. Tomorrow is the last day in which transfers can be made so as to permit of voting at the city primary, June 2. William R. Williams, State Treasurer, and a candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket, is to speak tomorrow before the City Club about "Uniform Public Accounts."

Dr. D. W. Mott, of Ventura, is seeking the Republican nomination for Assembly in the Sixty-fifth District. The petitions urging Joseph H. Call to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, have suddenly dropped out of circulation to the great regret of several men who were to get $2 per day each for circulating same.

Within the next two weeks the Link-Rooster bosses expect to have every last one of their county candidates picked, and they are in hopes that within the same period they will have agreed among themselves on the remainder of the State candidates.

Getting together on the county platform is no proving to have a mutually satisfactory proposition that the "big chiefs" had anticipated. They are ready to let it go if they can have a successful combination with the Democrats the latter intend to insist upon grabbing some of the official plums.

To add to the embarrassment of the situation, there are some Democrats of the "old line" who are frankly avowing their intention of not supporting any slate that the Link-Rooster may fix up with the "purity push" Demmes.

A Famous Painting FOR TIMES READERS

It is universally conceded that, as an animal painter, Rosa Bonheur was the greatest the world has ever known. So conscientious, so devoted to the real in art, it was her custom when portraying the death struggle of an animal to visit the slaughterhouse and there patiently observe the final twitching of the muscles as life became extinct. The results of her painstaking efforts soon made her a world-renowned figure in this most difficult line.

HER MASTERPIECE....

"The Horse Fair"

In 1853 this wonderful painting was exhibited for the first time and created general astonishment. In order to obtain material for this picture, Rosa Bonheur adopted masculine dress, which she never discarded. "The Horse Fair" was originally the property of the "merchant prince," the late A. T. Stewart, but was acquired by the Metropolitan Museum, where it now hangs, and is viewed daily by hundreds of visitors.

Cottolene is Guaranteed For Your Money Refunded

Cottolene is always fresh. Why? Because we pack it in friction-cover pails, which preserve its freshness and prevent absorbing dirt, dust and contaminating odors. Your grocer will refund your money if you find Cottolene other than fresh and satisfactory. The woods are full of imitations of Cottolene, which depend on the reputation of Cottolene. These imitations are of inferior quality, but are packed in tins with ordinary removal which offer little protection to the product.

A woman should be willing to pay a little more for a pail of Cottolene, because of its superior quality and the fact that, being richer, it will go one-third farther. Its use means economy in the end.

There is but one high-grade, absolutely pure and perfect cooking fat—Cottolene.

There is but one Cottolene—we make it.

FACTS, FEATURES
AND FANCIES
FOR HOME

BY OLIVE GRAY.
We were speaking, recently, about the West Adams locality, and who took the beautiful things with the language in transmitting to the Navy Department a report from the commander of the Maryland upon an accident in the boiler-room of the big cruiser on April 2, when a four-inch generating tube of one of the boilers blew out.
Totally regardless of their safety, the men referred to rushed into places of danger, turned off the steam, started the pumps and hauled the fires.
Secretary Meyer sent letters commending their bravery to the following: John Bruce of San Francisco;
Carl J. Hansen of Chicago, Martin F.
Grimes of Vallejo, Cal., and Bartholomew Glynn of New York.
Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan is noted for her charities, and it is estimated that in the last few years she has given away over $2,000,000. Her single largest donation was for the building and re-furnishing of the Cathedral of St. Peter at Richmond, Va., which cost her nearly $1,000,000.
Miss Helen Gould's gifts likewise have been widely distributed. She has spent more than $100,000,000 of her fortune left her by her father, Jay Gould.
Miss Gould's personal interest in charity work has made her famous over the world.
The present Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt has recently given $1,000,000 to build model tenement houses for city dwellers afflicted with tuberculosis, and she is noted for many other smaller charities.
Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J.
Pierpont Morgan, works quietly, and
it is hard to estimate in dollars and cents the amount of financial help given by this charming girl to others during the last few years,
but it is conservatively estimated at
more than $300,000.
Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont has given
liberally to charity in the past and her gifts exceed the $300,000 mark.
By the will of Mary Shinnelander
King, a daughter of John A. King,
once Governor of New York, religious and charitable institutions of New York will receive bequests aggregating about $750,000. The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Episcopal Church of America receives property worth $500,000, and a share in the residuary personal estate amounting to $45,000.
NO WITNESSES THERE.
Charge of Embezzlement Against Ya-
kum Dismissed Because They Fail
to Appear for State.
A charge of embezzlement against
M. O. Yakum, formerly manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, was dismissed
by Justice Summerfield for want of diligent prosecution, yesterday.
When the case was called in the morning, none of the witnesses for the prosecution was present. It was continued until afternoon. When it was again taken up there were no witnesses for
the prosecution.
At Levy, proprietor of Levy's Cafe,
swore to the complaint which caused Yakum's arrest. He alleged that Yakum had embezzled $22, and he
had given him to apply on a premium.
The District Attorney received word
yesterday that Levy did not care to
have the action prosecuted further.
A HIGHWAY FOR YEARS.
Evidence was introduced in the Malibu case in the Federal Court yesterday to show that campers and fishermen had been in the habit of passing over the disputed highway for years. Witnesses declared that the road is necessary for the accommodation of the public and that, until
a few years ago, there was no attempt to keep persons from passing.
The government is trying its case before Special Examiner Longley. It is alleged that the employees on the Hindge estate blockaded the road so
that hometekers could not reach their holdings in the Santa Monica Mountains.
TO BE TRIED AGAIN.
The Second District Court of Appeal
has reversed the judgment of the lower court in the case of the People against William P. Howland. He was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the Superior Court of San Diego county. The judge sentenced him to eighteen years in San Quentin. The case is remanded for a new trial on the ground that the court erred in giving some of his instructions.

ter at Richmond, Va., which cost her
nearly $1,000,000.
Miss Helen Gould's gifts likewise
have been widely distributed. She has spent more than $100,000,000 of her
fortune left her by her father, Jay Gould.
Miss Gould's personal interest in charity work has made her famous over the
world.
The present Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt has recently given $1,000,000 to build model tenement houses for city
dwellers afflicted with tuberculosis, and
she is noted for many other smaller
charities.
Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J.
Pierpont Morgan, works quietly, and
it is hard to estimate in dollars and cents the amount of
financial help given by this charming
girl to others during the last few years,
but it is conservatively estimated at
more than $300,000.
Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont has given
liberally to charity in the past and her
gifts exceed the $300,000 mark.
By the will of Mary Shinnelander
King, a daughter of John A. King,
once Governor of New York, religious
and charitable institutions of New York will receive bequests aggregating about $750,000. The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Episcopal Church of America receives property worth $500,000, and a share in the residuary personal estate amounting to $45,000.
NO WITNESSES THERE.
Charge of Embezzlement Against Ya-
kum Dismissed Because They Fail
to Appear for State.
A charge of embezzlement against
M. O. Yakum, formerly manager of the
Pacific Mutual Life Insurance
Company of California, was dismissed
by Justice Summerfield for want of
diligent prosecution, yesterday.
When the case was called in the
morning, none of the witnesses for the prosecution was present. It was continued until afternoon. When it was again
taken up there were no witnesses for
the prosecution.
At Levy, proprietor of Levy's Cafe,
swore to the complaint which caused Yakum's arrest. He alleged that Yakum had embezzled $22, and he
had given him to apply on a premium.
The District Attorney received word
yesterday that Levy did not care to
have the action prosecuted further.
A HIGHWAY FOR YEARS.
Evidence was introduced in the Malibu case in the Federal Court yesterday to show that campers and fishermen had been in the habit of passing over the disputed highway for years. Witnesses declared that the road is necessary for the accommodation of the public and that, until
a few years ago, there was no attempt to keep persons from passing.
The government is trying its case before Special Examiner Longley. It is alleged that the employees on the Hindge estate blockaded the road so
that hometekers could not reach
their holdings in the Santa Monica Mountains.
TO BE TRIED AGAIN.
The Second District Court of Appeal
has reversed the judgment of the lower court in the case of the People
against William P. Howland. He was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the Superior Court of San Diego county. The judge
sentenced him to eighteen years in San Quentin. The case is remanded
for a new trial on the ground that
the court erred in giving some of his instructions.

Kind Hearts—Good Deeds
"How far that little candle throws its beam!
So shines a good deed in a naughty
world."
"You have lots of poor fellows brought before you who have eyes to see happiness in the world," said an aged blind man to City Magistrate O'Connor in Camden, N. Y. "But a man cannot see much happiness anywhere when he is hungry. I haven't any money to spare, but give this dollar to the first honest hungry vagrant brought before you in court."
The aged blind man gave the judge a dollar bill. William Schwanberg, 21 years of age, of New York City, got that bill the next day. He was brought into the city court hungry, penniless, friendless and without work or possibility of getting any.
"I want to get back to New York,"
he told the court. "I'll have to walk it and if I could get a little something to eat, the trip wouldn't look so hard to me."
The court told Schwanberg where the dollar bill came from, and the young man received it with a gladness
it wasn't necessary for him to express.
The Forsythe Dental Infirmary has soon to public use in Boston. The institution was provided for by the will of the late Thomas A. Forsythe, who left $2,000,000 for the purpose. It will consist of a thoroughly equipped dental hospital in the back-bay district of Boston, where free treatment will be given to any child under 16 years of age. The purpose of the institution is to give free care of the teeth to every child in the city who cannot otherwise get this attention.

EVERYBODY BUSY.

CENTENNIAL TO LAST A MONTH.

MEXICO IS MAKING MOST ELABORATE PLANS.

Southern Republic's September "Fiesta," to Celebrate Its Hundredth Birthday, Will Be Most Notable Ever Held—Foreign Nations to Take Part.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—Practically all preliminary arrangements for Mexico's centennial celebration, to continue through the entire month of next September, have been made and the thirty days of festivities promise to be among the most striking of gala events recorded within the present generation. Subcommittees have been appointed and are at work upon the diverse features, including the grand civic parade, the historical pageants, popular theatrical functions, games and athletic events, fireworks and plaza serenades, official ceremonies commemorative of the nation's independence, grand scientific and literary contests, exercises in honor of Morelos and the placing of a slab to his memory in the wall of the municipal palace, torchlight procession, grand balls at the palaces, popular theaters, amusement halls and market places, and apotheosis of the leaders and soldiers of the war of independence. A pyrotechnical display on the night of September 15 promises to be among the most magnificent features. In the central square of the Zocalo, which faces the cathedral, built over the ruins of the Aztec temple where human sacrifice used to be common, there will be erected a platform from which innumerable wires will extend to points about the plaza. At a given signal fireworks suspended from all these wires will be touched off simultaneously, producing in dazzling light the Mexican flag, true to color, with countless intermediate lights and spray effects.

DIAZ APPROVES MEDALS.

President Diaz has approved the medals for three classes of medals, to be fashioned of gold, silver and bronze. The total cost of the medals will be $46,000. "All nations of the world with which Mexico maintains diplomatic relations will participate in the celebration. Many foreign warships will anchor in Mexican harbors on both the Atlantic and Pacific sides while their officers are ashore taking part in the ceremonies. Special features will be arranged for the particular entertainment of the republic's guests. France will return to Mexico the silver keys to the capital given to the French at the time of their occupation. Germany will erect here a monument to Humboldt as its token and China will make an elaborate gift, the nature of which she has not yet revealed. As evidence that there no longer exists racial bias, all Spaniards resident in Mexico will unite in the tender of a testimonial to the president of the United States, the patriotic priest who shared the struggle for independence of a century ago.

EVERYBODY GETTING READY.

Forerunners signs of the times are present on every hand. All the big newspapers and magazines are getting ready for special editions, which will be published about the middle of the celebration month. State and district cities and even hamlets all over the republic will dedicate buildings, parks, monuments, public works and utilities in commemoration of the event. Many institutions not strictly Mexican are following suit. The Young Men's Christian Association in this city, for example, having decided to dedicate its imposing new home on Broadway to the centennial. The railroads of Mexico and the United States and steamship lines from all points will make record-low rates for the centennial weeks. Many extra trains will run on all local lines. That they will have to handle an enormous traffic is shown by the fact that already requests for reservations are pouring into the principal hotels.

COWBOYS FIND WARM BODIES.

Placer Miner and His Wife Are Murdered.

Arizona Crime Prompted by Robbery, Probably.

Skunk Bites Promote Many Cases of Rabies.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) May 5.—Yesterday morning George Mahard and wife were murdered at the Mahard placer camp, on the upper Hassayampa River, by unknown persons, evidently robbers. The bodies were found by Charles Riden and Herbert Cook, two cowboys, evidently only a short time after the crime, for blood was still flowing from wounds in Mahard's head. The men did not dismount, but hurried to Kirkland, nine miles distant, to notify the Sheriff by telephone.

Sheriff Smith and Coroner McLane promptly left Prescott for the scene of the murder, arriving late last night. Early this morning they telephoned, corroborating the story of Riden and Cook, and adding that no trace could be found of the child of the couple, supposed to have been with them.

Mahard was one of the best known residents of this county, where he had amassed a competence by catok ransing and placer mining. It is understood that Mrs. Mahard and the child had returned only a few days ago from a trip to Los Angeles.

RABIES FROM SKUNKS.

Dr. C. E. Yount of Prescott, captain and assistant surgeon in the National Guard of Arizona, has issued a pamphlet on the subject of rabies, with report of cases from skunk bites. This is a matter of large importance in Arizona, where greater danger exists from the bite of hydrophobic skunks on the cattle ranges than from the more generally appreciated menace of snake bites.

Rabies is almost unknown in Arizona, except by transmission through the bite of a skunk, it appearing that this animal has a peculiar capacity for the dreaded disorder. The only case noted of a rabid dog was where the animal had previously been bitten by a rabid skunk.

Just as a matter of warning, it is added: When a skunk, an animal nocturnal in its habits, generally timid, attacks man or any other animal and inflicts a bite, if the skunk is not killed and exposed, the best policy is it were better to accept this sudden change of disposition on the part of the skunk as a priori evidence of rabies, and seek prompt treatment at once.

A competitor has arisen against the Pasture Institutes that now pay special attention to the Southwest. Manuel Contreras, a local Mexican, was bitten by a skunk on the back of his neck about a month ago. He left at once for Mexico, where he had heard of a great faul Indian medicine man who had absolute power over rabies. Contreras reached the right village, that of Campos, in the Mexican State of Sinaloa, thaly to find that the medicine man had been dead for a year. But he had a successor, a daughter, to whom had descended the secret. He gave Contreras an odorless and almost tasteless liquid to drink. Immediately he experienced profuse perspiration and the next day he was pronounced out of danger. He shows a bad scar on his wrist, but now feels himself safe.

BREVITIES.

J. A. Jaeger, chief engineer of the Arizona and California Railroad, states that the line will be completed through to Cadiz by the end of this week, though two weeks more will be needed for surfacing the line and for digging the necessary storm drains.

A large number of homesteads in the Whipple Barracks soldiers' team won the last game of the baseball series with the Phoenix team, after losing the first game. The star of the series was Ayer of Tempe, who pitched two games for the Phoenix team.

ANARCHISTS RAMPANT.

Mob of Industrial Workers of the World Join in Tearing Up American Flag.

Shouting defiance against all law and order, declaring that the United States flag is but a dirty rag, and finally tearing it into strips, which were flung among the crowd, was the culminating scene in an evening of wild disorders instigated by a mob of about 200 I. W. W. rads, last evening, on South Los Angeles street.

The tramping of the flag was the aftermath of the picnic given Sunday by the I. W. W. At that time there were wild demonstrations against the flag. Last night one of the speakers, Herman Schmelz, mounted a soap box and declared that they had been perfectly right in tearing up the flag at Sunday's picnic, and that they would do it again. He spoke for some time, denouncing the government and working the mob to a frenzy.

His place was then taken by another speaker, who dared any one in the crowd to show him an American flag. Some one threw a small flag in his face and he grabbed it, tearing it up and tossing the fragments to the crowd, shouting curses and daring any one to stop him. Two sailors on the outskirts endeavored to reach him, but were forced back. Patrolman Fitzgerald, who is on that beat, attracted by the disturbance, summoned two other officers and made for the crowd, which promptly scattered.

No information could be obtained as to the identity of the man, at the I. W. W. headquarters last night.

SAN PEDRO.

SAN PEDRO, May 5.—Capt. Frank Zaddart, master of the steamer Santa Barbara, arriving today from Gray's Harbor, via Port Coler, received a wire from San Francisco, informing him that he was the lucky winner of the yacht Pronto, in a raffle. The yacht is valued at $200. The winning ticket cost Capt. Zaddart $1.

HOLDING, May 5.—The market showed continued strength today, and the general feeling seemed to be that the break was over. Copper stocks have been in demand since the 1st of the month, and we are of the opinion that it is not likely to be reversed. The market is not yet fully recovered from the recent decline, but we believe that the market is now in a position to advance.

OWES MUCH TO LOS ANGELES.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
MEXICO CITY, May 1.—Financial, commercial and mutually social relations between Mexico and California are closer now than ever before in history and are constantly growing more intimate. Those men of the republic who should know are unanimous in the conclusion that of all the commonwealth of the United States California has been most prominent in assistance of Mexico's development, and Los Angeles, of all the Golden State's metropolises, is foremost. Headed and vouched for by Los Angeles, California capital, more than that of any other American State, has been the most active in the aid of the Indians, irrigate the deserts, open the mines, build the railroads, install other public utilities, exploit the forests, stock the country, buy the products and advertise the resources of Mexico.

A. B. Clark, a Fresno banker, who has been in Mexico for many years, made the unequivocal statement that more California money is looking Mexico-ward for investment now than ever before. "This is a good omen for the immediate future," he added, "because the one thing Mexico needs to bring her into the world of commerce is a business proposition, will avail herself of the opportunities open along many avenues. Business conditions in the United States are constantly improving and there is bound to be a sympathetic effect in Mexico, because of the neighborly relations and common interests of the two republics."

ANGELENOS LIGHT MEXICO.
In only a few weeks Mexico City will be supplied with gas in abundant quantities, for light, heating and power. Fuel for the manufacture of gas is piped by Californians from wells brought in by Californians to the central plant built by California, headed by E. L. Doherty of Los Angeles. The Gas Operating and Construction Company, organized in Los Angeles, has secured a concession to install a gas plant in Guadalajara, second largest city in the republic. There will be used in the plant a natural oil supply which has been developed.

Mineral development of the north and west of Mexico, particularly of the camps of Chihuahua, Sonora, Sinaloa, Durango, Tepic and Jalisco, is in large measure indebted to the cash and faith of Californians. Realizing that Mexico mines are displaying a lively interest in the progress of progress, the mining men of California are maturing for a big campaign to attract to Mexico from Los Angeles, projected by the Sierra Madre Club. Steps will be taken to attract to Mexico, Guaymas, Alamos, Culiacan, Mazatlan and other points north and west. Possibly arrangements will be made to attract to Kansas City, Mexico and Orient for a sidestep to the port of Topolobampo and some mining districts on that partially completed line.

The rapidly-building Southern Pacific Railroad of Mexico near San Blas. The journey will be made by the members of the club, but by other prominent mining and oil men of California. California is directly to be accredited with a big share of the development of the marvelous resource of the isthmian region tapped and traversed by the Panama Canal. The first steel was laid by California money, collected by D. P. Doak of Los Angeles. Los Angeles is also heavily interested in the extension of the railroads south and east across Central America from the Guatemalan border to the Pacific Ocean. The development of which the retired American Ambassador, David E. Thompson, is president of the Panama Canal, formerly president of the Navy, is now president of the Navy, is now president of the Navy.

cotton, coffee, corn, cattle and mines of the Tehuacan region and being brought to the front by that road, owing its origin to California. California men are the most responsible for the living in Mexico City for "aguacates," which are grown in abundance and are being greedily snapped up for disposition in Los Angeles and San Francisco. The buyers of the Golden State have awakened to the fact that the "aguacate" is far superior in quality to that obtainable from the Hawaiian Islands and are picking up all the supplies available. The express companies have about come to the conclusion that by next season they will have to allot cars and trucks for the traffic between this mart and the chief distributing points of California. Most American cities the taste for this fruit has to be cultivated, but California it is strongly developed and from that State comes the chief demand.

FURNISHED FINE FISHING.
Lake Chapala, southeast of Guadalajara in the state of Jalisco, will be among the finest fishing resorts on the continent within the next three or four years, thanks partly to California. After a while that picturesque body of limpid water will yield a generous tribute of black bass, among the finest of any food and game of the world. The Waltonian quarry. From their native retreats in the Kern River, California, they have come to Mexico in 1909, and are now being introduced to the waters of Lake Chapala. The Wright Chubb syndicate, of San Francisco, has asked for a concession to conduct a national industrial expedition here in 1910, with the object of introducing the fish. If granted the privilege, to carry out the undertaking on a government basis without expense to the State, the syndicate will turn over to the Federal authorities all net proceeds of the expedition except the ten percent, to be retained as its remuneration. No decision as to the concession has yet been reached. California has had to do with the newspaper business in this capital. Almost from the day of its birth the Mexico Daily Times, the only English newspaper printed in English, has been supported by funds supplied by George I. Ham, who has extensive interests in Southern California, and some of his associates, citizens of Los Angeles. Two years ago the general man-
